Connecting Kids & Creativity

A family company celebrating with schools & families since 1989.

It all starts with YOU.

Welcome to Original Works!

Each day we are amazed by the level of dedication, fun, and enjoyment the educators & volunteers we work with bring to their schools. After all, students need and benefit from that fun and energy – just as they need and benefit from art.

As a family owned company, our focus has always been on connecting kids to their creativity and their families in a fun and meaningful way. This approach not only brings out their inner selves, but also enriches their educational experience, confidence and self-esteem.

As we enter our 33rd year in business, we invite you and your families to join us for a program experience filled with fun, joy, and memories. We look forward to seeing you soon.
