Character Programs, LLC, makes no guarantee that our software, smartphone app, educational videos, and educational materials will reduce bullying, cyberbullying, or any other type of destructive behavior. Our software and reporting app serve to help schools track bullying, cyberbullying, and other behavioral incidents, however, they do not serve as an Emergency Response System for active threats. For any emergencies or active threats, students should call 911 right away, and our Report Bullying App reminds them of this. Our software is robust and it can be very helpful for monitoring school culture, but it can only be effective and accurate if properly used by the end users. The software does not work automatically, and active monitoring by the end users is critical, as No Bullying Schools and Character

Programs LLC do not monitor any reports or images submitted through the Report Bullying Smartphone App or through the Reporting Form on our website. Reports are confidential and are only viewed by the end user: the school administrators of each individual school and district. Our videos and educational materials serve to motivate students toward positive life choices and mental health, however, we can never replace in-person professional counseling or psychological services (nor do we attempt to). Students involved in destructive decisions should seek help from a licensed mental health professional.

When you visit a website, that site's computer asks your computer for permission to store this file in a part of your hard drive specifically designated for cookies. Each website can send its own cookie to your browser if your browser's preferences allow it, but (to protect your privacy) your browser only permits a website to access the cookies it has already sent to you, not the cookies sent to you by other sites. Some of our business partners may use cookies that originate from their sites. We have no access or control over those cookies.

As you use our website, the site uses its cookies to differentiate you from other users. In some cases, we may also use cookies to prevent you from seeing unnecessary advertisements or requiring you to log in more than is necessary for security. This helps us gather feedback in order to constantly improve our website and better serve our customers. Cookies do not allow us to gather any personal information about you and we do not generally store any personal information that you provided to us in your cookies.

SHARING INFORMATION WITH THIRD PARTIES

We may enter into alliances, partnerships or other business arrangements with third parties who may be given access to personal information including your name, address, telephone number and email for the purpose of providing you information regarding products and services that we think will be of interest to you. In connection with alliances, partnerships or arrangements, we may also provide certain information to third parties if we have determined that the information will be used in a responsible manner by a responsible third party. For example, some of our partners may provide services related to our site, while others power offerings developed by us for your use. We also use third parties to facilitate our business, including, but not limited to, sending email. In connection with these offerings and business operations, our partners and other third parties may have access to your personal information for use in connection with business activities. As we develop our business, we may buy or sell assets or business offerings. Customer, email, and visitor information is generally one of the transferred business assets in these types of transactions. We may also transfer such information in the course of corporate divestitures, mergers, or any dissolution.

To protect your personal information, we take reasonable precautions and follow industry best practices to make sure it is not inappropriately lost, misused, accessed, disclosed, altered or destroyed. If you provide us with your credit card information, the information is encrypted using secure socket layer technology (SSL) and stored with a AES-256 encryption. Although no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is 100% secure, we follow all PCI-DSS requirements and implement additional generally accepted industry standards.

COPPA COMPLIANCE

We recognize the need to provide further privacy protections with respect to personal information we may collect from children on our sites and applications. Some of the features on our sites and applications are age-gated so that they are not available for use by children, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children in connection with those features. When we intend to collect personal information from children, we take additional steps to protect children's privacy, including:

- Notifying school administrators and parents about our information practices with regard to children, including the types of personal information we may collect from children, the uses to which we may put that information, and whether and with whom we may share that information;

- Limiting our collection of personal information from children to no more than is reasonably necessary to participate in an online activity; and
- Giving parents access or the ability to request access to personal information we have collected from their children and the ability to request that the personal information be changed or deleted.

FERPA COMPLIANCE

Character Programs, LLC, in its role as a vendor to educational agencies and institutions (EAs), receives disclosures from the EAs of personally identifiable information (PII) contained in student records. Only information that is needed for Character Programs, LLC to perform services outsourced to it by the EA is disclosed to Character Programs, LLC. These disclosures are authorized under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a federal statute that regulates the privacy of student records by EAs that receive financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education. Character Programs, LLC, as a contractor to the EA, receives the disclosures on the same basis as school officials employed by the EA, consistent with FERPA regulations, 34 CFR §99.31(a)(1)(i)(B). Consistent with those regulations, Character Programs, LLC has a legitimate educational interest in the information to which it is given access because the information is needed to perform the outsourced service, and Character Programs, LLC is under the direct control of the EA in using and maintaining the disclosed education records, consistent with the terms of its contract.

Character Programs, LLC is subject to the same conditions on use and redisclosure of education records that govern all school officials, as provided in 34 CFR §99.33. In particular, Character Programs, LLC must ensure that only individuals that it employs or that are employed by its contractor, with legitimate educational interests – consistent with the purposes for which Character Programs, LLC obtained the information – obtain access to PII from education records it maintains on behalf of the district or institution. Further, in accordance with 34 CFR §99.33(a) and (b), Character Programs, LLC may not redisclose PII without consent of a parent or an eligible student (meaning a student who is 18 years old or above or is enrolled in postsecondary education) unless the agency or institution has authorized the redisclosure under a FERPA exception and the agency or institution records the subsequent disclosure. An example of such a disclosure is when Character Programs, LLC is requested by a school district to assist the district in the transfer of the student records from our system to another system. Character Programs, LLC will not sell or otherwise use or redisclose education records for targeted advertising or marketing purposes.
