Broken Arrow Professional Development Proposal

Effective Implementation: Changing Practice

For effective and sustainable implementation, professional development must directly prioritize classroom instruction and develop necessary capacity among key stakeholders -- district leads, principals, instructional leaders/coaches, and teachers. Professional development includes both training and coaching support over multiple years to incrementally develop the knowledge and skills needed for a self-sustaining implementation. Training equips stakeholders with the information and tools they need for a successful program implementation and initially focuses heavily on updating day to day processes, activities, tools, and protocols to ensure a coherent approach to literacy instruction. Coaching provides real-time context for application and skill building to develop effective habits of teaching that produce excellent student outcomes.

Customized Amplify Professional Development Package

This custom professional development package is designed to support teachers, schools, and district leaders in effectively implementing Amplify products. This professional development package draws from our individual training sessions and includes additional support, such as online learning modules and year-long, remote support and change management services, which we recommend for large district-wide adoptions. Amplify would welcome the opportunity to partner with the district to further customize a professional development package to meet their individual needs.

The pricing for the professional development packages below is only applicable for a district-wide Amplify adoption. We welcome the opportunity to partner with Broken Arrow to customize the approach to professional development, and we will work with the District to finalize the support plan based on detailed conversations around implementation scale and budgetary constraints. Below are the recommended number of sessions, accommodating 30 participants per session.
